

Amadea Dattel

2024-2025 Fulbright Debate Coach

Amadea Dattel is a Fulbright Taiwan Debate Coach who received a BA in Philosophy from Dartmouth College in 2024. She debated in college policy for three years, reaching the quarterfinals at the Gonzaga Jesuit Debates and winning the University of Minnesota College Invitational, the Crowe Warken Debates at USNA, and the Mid America Championship, while ranking as the 25th team nationally her sophomore year. In high school, she built and coached her school's LD debate team, won several tournaments in Massachusetts, and was the top speaker and a semifinalist at the MSDL State Championship and the first student from her school to qualify for NSDA and NCFL Nationals, clearing at the former. Amadea is also a former Assistant Coach at Apple Valley High School and Director of LD at the Victory Briefs Institute, and she has led policy and LD labs at various other debate camps throughout college.
